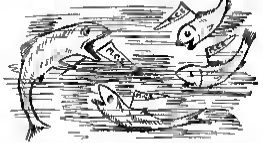
We Trust That the Study of This Under the Sea Insect Will Not Be Too Deep for the Class. —By G. O. MacCenachie.

NATURE STUDIES... The Sardine—

DERIVES ITS NAME FROM THE SWISS WORD FOR CLUSTER. ONE OF THE EARLY EXPLORERS GAVE THESE ANIMALS THIS HANDLE. BECAUSE THEY ALWAYS HANG AROUND TOGETHER. THAT'S WHY THEY DESCRIBE THE POOR FISHES WHO GO TO PRIZE-FIGHTS AS "PACKED IN LIKE SARDINES"

THE GERMANS HAVE WON OVER THE SARDINES BY LETTING THEM RIDE ON THEIR SUBMARINES FOR A "JIT"



SARDINE SCHOOL GIVING ITS COLLEGE YELL. THIS HAPPENS TO BE THE 51 WHOOP SOLONG CROWD OF THE VENICE CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL

IN SOME PARTS OF THE SICILIAN ISLANDS SARDINES BLOOM IN BIG BUNCHES—LIKE DOUGHNUTS—READY FOR CANNING

CHASSIS OF THE LARGEST SARDINE. PELT EVER TRAPPED. SARDINE FUR IS FINE AND OILY AND BRINGS PRICES DURING WAR TIMES AS THE SOLDIERS' PAJAMAS ARE LINED WITH IT.

ON MOONLIGHT NIGHTS THE NATIVES OF THE LIBERIAN ISLANDS SPEAR THE WILD SARDINES WHEN THEY FLIT FROM CAN TO CAN AND BACK AGAIN

SARDINE TRAPPER BORING HOLE IN THE WATER BEFORE SETTING HIS SNARE.

REALLY GREAT MEN

LUTHER G GLUTZ

OWNER OF THE BIGGEST SARDINE RANCH IN THE WORLD "LUT" HAS MADE MILLIONS BY MARKETING THE RARE SARDINE PLUMAGES IN THE FAR EAST. MR GLUTZ WAS SNAPPED AT HIS FAVORITE RECREATION.
